

HAVE YOU HAD AN ACL INJURY?

Be part of the National Ligament Registry

In order to provide best practice in knee ligament reconstruction there needs to be constant analysis of the outcome of surgery.

The National Ligament Registry (NLR) allows consultants to further understand the nature of injuries, to identify trends in practice and provide functional outcome data and complication rates, to better advise patients on expectations.

Ask your consultant about the National Ligament Registry TODAY

www.uknlr.co.uk